Brooklyn Indian Scares Housewife With Scalping Knife

NEW YORK — A resident of a Brooklyn apartment house told the Flatbush court an Indian working as an elevator operator in the building has some rights, but she doesn't believe they include wearing a "scalping knife" and hanging a modified war club in his elevator.

Mrs. George Hagopian, one of the 12 tenants in the building, said that it had taken a little time to get used to Chief Reindeer, otherwise known as "Joe" when he went to work as superintendent and elevator operator—not that his strangeness was entirely distasteful.

She thought his custom of wearing his hair in a braid was novel and when he occasionally stuck a gay feather into his coiffure, it lent a romantic touch that brightened all of Flatbush.

However, she said the elevator service was poor. You could 'ring and ring' before the car came and it did not do much good to complain. Once, she added, when she did complain, Chief Reindeer replied: "This is my country, you leave."

Mrs. Hagopian reminded him of a real estate transaction involving Manhattan island and $24 worth of trinkets. Neither was calm enough at the time to speculate on how Brooklyn was included in the parcel. In any event, the Indian directed her attention to a knife in his belt, which terminated the argument, she said.

Mrs. Hagopian said that she was afraid of being scalped. She said that other tenants had been insulted and that several had signed a petition to the landlord for the chief's removal.

The building's owner was advised to keep the chief under wraps.

Black Eyed Peas Confuse Row Bean Sorting Machine

WASHINGTON — The government has developed a bean sorting machine in which a television tube "eye" picks the bad from the good.

The machine can scan 3,780 beans a minute, and eject any that does not conform to a normal color pattern. Some 100 are being used at the Chester B. Brown plant at Gering, Neb.

They can be adjusted to sort beans of any color, even pintos, it is reported, but the so-called black eyed pea (experts call it a bean, too) has the TV eye stumped.

It can't tell the difference between a bad pea's discoloration and the distinctive black eye on a good one.

It's another mystery that science has not explained yet.

Wisconsin Town Loses Tax Revenue Over Technicality

WAUSAU, Wis. — Sam Nigar has the town in an uproar. And it is through no particular fault of his own.

Sam's property sits astride the city limits. His barn is in the city of Wausau and his house is in the county of Wausau. Last year he asked the Wisconsin Fuel & Light company to hook him up to the gas mains. It meant a 300-foot extension of the mains, but the company obligingly made the connection.

Sam's gas hookup has had far freaching results. Previously the company serving only city customers, had been classified as a private utility and paid its taxes directly to the city. When the company first started serving Sam, outside the city limits, it became a public utility. From now on it will pay its taxes to the state, the department of taxation has ruled.

That's good for the gas company but bad for the city. Last year the company paid $14,900 in taxes on a city tax rate of $36 per $1,000 valuation. This year the company will have to pay only $11,205 in taxes, because the state rate is $27 per $1,000 valuation. Of this tax money collected by the state, the city will get half, or $5,600.

Wausau officials, aggrieved at the prospect of an annual $9,340 revenue loss, are reported to be toying with the idea of "annexing" Sam Nigar's house.

300-Mile Tunnel Planned To Drain Huge Coal Field

WASHINGTON — A 300-mile-long twin bore tunnel to open vast hard coal reserves now under water in central Pennsylvania is in the planned by the bureau of mines.

S. A. Ash, chief of the bureau's safety branch, said the tunnel—the longest of its kind—should be constructed from the central Pennsylvania coal field to Tidewater near Havre de Grace, Md.

The project would cost from 300 to 500 million dollars, Ash said, but would have a double barreled purpose. While opening new anthracite reserves in an area now producing more than 500 million dollars worth of coal a year, it also would carry 600,000 gallon of water a minute through a heavily populated industrial area which is frequently threatened with water shortages.

This water would provide a new source of electric power to supplement supplies in an industrial area roughly from Jersey City to Baltimore, Ash said. He added that the drainage would double the remaining life of the Pennsylvania anthracite field.

A REGULATION TO RE-ENACT CERTAIN COMMISSION REGULATIONS OF STATEWIDE APPLICATION

Pursuant to a proposal authorized by this Commission August 28, 1950, and published as required by law, the following regulation was adopted at a meeting of this Commission at Richmond, Virginia, October 17, 1950:

1. The Statewide season for hunting squirrels, quail, rabbits, grouse, turkeys, bear, deer and pheasants shall open November 20 and close January 5 in the counties west of the Blue Ridge Mountains and on the National Forest lands, and in the counties east of the Blue Ridge Mountains the closing date shall be January 20th. Bag limits: Quail, 8 a day; 125 a season; Rabbits, 6 a day, 75 a season; Grouse, 3 a day, 15 a season; deer, 1 a season; Raccoon, 3 a day, 20 a season.

The Statewide season to hunt foxes with a gun shall be October 1 to November 18 and November 20 to January 20, except the closing date in the counties west of the Blue Ridge Mountains and the National Forest areas shall be January 5.

It shall be unlawful to take deer east of the Blue Ridge Mountains except those having horns at least two inches visible above the hair.

Deer may be hunted during the season therefore in the snow; foxes may be hunted in the snow with dogs only; the owner or tenant may kill or have killed foxes at anytime on his own land under his control.

It shall be unlawful to use a rifle of a calibre less than twenty-five for the hunting and-or killing of deer, Statewide.

It shall be unlawful to hunt elk at anytime.

Any person killing a bear, deer or elk in this State during the open season for the taking of same shall immediately have attached thereto an official big game tag to be furnished by the Commission. Other rules for the convenience of such persons may be prescribed by the Commission from time to time.

Failure to comply with this Regulation shall, in addition to penalties elsewhere provided, result in the confiscation of the animal.

It shall be unlawful to sell or offer for sale in any manner or form whatsoever any game bird, game animal, game fish or any part thereof, provided that the pelts and furs of hairbearing and furbearing animals may be sold during the open season for the hunting or trapping of the same and for a period of fifteen days immediately following the close of the open season. Provided, further, that under permit to raise them in captivity, as provided by law, game birds and game animals may be sold for propagation purposes only.

Subject to exceptions.

2. The open season for taking Wall-eyed or Pike Perch shall be June 20 to December 31 west of the Blue Ridge Mountains.

The daily creel limit on large and small-mouth black bass shall be eight a day; pike 20 a day; bream and other sunfish 25 a day in the aggregate of all species, including crappie.

It shall be unlawful to sell or buy rock fish or striped bass taken in inland waters.

It shall be unlawful to fish in waters stocked with trout except during the open seasons for the taking of bass and-or trout. Further, that seines and nets of every kind shall be prohibited in all waters stocked with trout.

Minnows may be taken by any person for private use as bait and not for sale with minnow haul seine not exceeding four feet in depth by ten feet in length or by an umbrella type net not exceeding five by five feet or five feet in diameter without a permit. Minnows shall not be taken in waters where the use of nets is prohibited and it shall be unlawful to take small perch or game fish with nets for any purpose.

Persons to whom dip net permits are issued may take fish, except bass and other game fish, with "traps" and "pots" without wings or hedging, for private table use and not for sale. The taking of fish in this manner is limited to the waters of the county in which the dip net permit is issued.

Subject to exceptions.

3. The Statwide open season for trapping mink shall be December 15 to January 31; opossum December 1 to January 31; otter December 15 to February 28.

It shall be unlawful to trap raccoon or beaver at anytime.

It shall be unlawful to trap with steel traps except when done on land by the owner, members of his or her household, tenants, or those having permission to do so from the landowner or agent.

It shall be unlawful to hunt furbearing animals in any county in the daytime with firearms, except during the general open season for hunting game birds and game animals in the county.

It shall be unlawful for any person to set traps for muskrat on any stob, float, or floating device on or in any of the waters of the State.

It shall be unlawful for any person, including landowners, to trap during the closed season, provided that when furbearing animals are doing damage to crops or other property of the landowner, or lessee of the premises, the game warden of the county may issue a permit to such landowners or lessee to trap such furbearing animals as are doing damage on his property, provided however the game warden shall not issue any permit to trap beaver. It shall be unlawful to sell or buy the furs of animals taken under such a permit except during the open season.

All exceptions of local application to the foregoing regulations shall remain in force and effect.

The foreging shall become effective November 7, 1950.

By order of the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries.

Beverley W. Stras, Jr.
Chairman.

Late Marriage Is Reason For Fewer Children, Report

NEW YORK—College graduates averaging around 49 years old and out of school a quarter of a century, have a deficiency of 26 per cent in the number of children born to assure replacement, according to findings of Dr. W. A. Anderson, Cornell university rural sociologist.

Dr. Anderson studied 3,000 graduates (1,126 men and 370 women) of the Cornell classes of 1916, 1920 and 1921, and found the deficit of men graduates was 21 per cent, and for women, 41 per cent.

He based this on the fact it takes 2.22 live-born children for each college graduate for the son or daughter to reach college graduation age of mother or father. The Cornellians averaged 1.64 children.

Of the entire group studied, 89 per cent were married, 11 per cent single, 1 per cent divorced, and 2 per cent widowed.

Men established their families at about 29 years of age, and the women at about 28. This late age of marriage is given as a chief reason why college graduates do not on the average have enough children to replace themselves. The study received their diplomas at the average age of 23 years.

The reproduction rates of Cornell graduates are practically the same as those of other colleges, says Dr. Anderson.

Stonewall

Stonewall, Nov. 1.- I hope the ghosts and ghouls didn't get any one last night, as it was Hallowe'en.

We are so glad that Mr. P. B. Burnette and Mr. John Burnette are getting better, after a spell of illness. Hope they both will soon be out again.

The young folks of the Trinity Church had a Hallowe'en party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howlette Drinkard last Saturday night. There was a large crowd and had a wonderful time. Even the ghosts were around.

Mr. and Mrs. Billie Wheeler spent Sunday with her parents in Lynchburg. It being Mrs. Wheeler's birthday. Her mother arranged the celebration. We wish her many more happy birthdays to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wheeler and baby girl spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irby Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. Howlette Drinkard and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Drinkard at Oakville.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Turnes visited her sister, Mrs. W. A. Perrow last Sunday. Mrs. Perrow is improving at her home near Sherwill after a recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Parks Jennings spent the week-end in Richmond with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jennings. Mrs. Jennings has had an operation and Mr. Jennings has been ill with pneumonia. So glad they are both improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Howlette Drinkard and family visited her brother, Mr. Bob Martin in the Virginia Baptist Hospital on Sunday night. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Dickerson and son, Fred, of Spout Springs and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Collins, of Lynchburg spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Caldwell.

Rocks

Rocks, Oct. 30.- We are having such pretty weather now for fall work.

The children going from here to the Pamplin school on the school bus were frightened and shook up last Monday when a car on the highway hit the bus. Only one child received a few bruises. The car was torn up.

Mrs. D. R. Inge spent a Sunday recently with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dickerson and family.

Friends are sorry to hear that Johnny Roach is not so well again and has had to stop school. We hope he will soon be able to go back to school.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Ransom and Charlene were visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roach awhile Saturday afternoon.

Friends are glad to know that G. T. Marsh is much better after being quite ill last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Pugh spent Thursday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Marsh.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Inge and Diane, of Farmville were here for the homecoming at the Evergreen Baptist Church Sunday. Quite a few from Rocks went to Evergreen to attend the homecoming.

Friends were shocked when they heard that the Rev. and Mrs. Cecil G. Carter were injured Friday night when the car in which they were in was struck by a train, on their way home to Charlottesville from the dedication of the Home for the Aged at Culpeper.

We wish them a speedy recovery.

Friends around here are sorry to hear that Z. V. Harvey, of Evergreen, is ill. He is in the Virginia Baptist Hospital, Lynchburg. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Claiborne Inge were visiting in Farmville Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Walter Ransom attended the homecoming at Falling River Church on the 4th Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marks and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ranson called in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ranson awhile Saturday night.

Prayer meeting is still being held on Sunday night just after B. T. U. Those of you who haven't been attending these services, won't you come out and help keep them going?

NOW, FOR THE FIRST TIME IN MOTORING HISTORY—a revolutionary new fall-grade gasoline that resists stalling... annoying conk-outs at traffic lights or parking, and that sputter-and-stall trouble during the first few minutes of driving on damp, chilly days.
It's especially good in cars with AUTOMATIC TRANSMISSIONS—where restarting after stalling is more troublesome.
IT'S ANOTHER BIG EXTRA FOR YOUR MONEY IN ESSO EXTRA—the high-test gasoline long famous for quick starting, fast warm-up, high anti-knock power and long mileage!
And Esso Extra is the ONLY premium gasoline with patented Esso Solvent Oil that fights harmful engine deposits.
Don't stall another day... try a tankful right away!
And when you're in, there's no better time to let your Esso Dealer give your car a complete check-up for the winter driving you'll be doing!
*Don't let this happen to you!
Stalling that occurs on cool, humid days (30° to 55° temperatures, humidity above 65%) is generally caused by carburetor "icing." Evaporation of the highly volatile gasolines required for modern cars has a refrigerating effect which freezes moisture out of the air, accumulating icy frost in the carburetor. New Fall-Grade Anti-Stalling Esso Extra Gasoline helps eliminate this cause of stalling, which is experienced with most cars on the road today. It will not, of course, prevent stalling caused by faulty carburetor adjustment or electrical failure.
